CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR

As you are all aware Christmas and New Year for the Security Industry is our busiest time of the year and most of our customers will require additional cover over the coming month.

We therefore require the support from all Britsafe employees to enable us to continue giving our customers a first class service. Failing to report for duty puts additional pressure on fellow employees and affects the service level to our customers.

Your full support and hard work during the coming festive period is very much appreciated.

Paul Cody and All Members of the Britsafe Management Team would like to take this opportunity to wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year and thank you all for your hard work over the past year.

VETTING

If you receive a letter from Head Office requesting further information for vetting purposes please respond promptly with all the requested information.

Vetting of Officers has to be done within a set number of weeks and it is therefore vital that all requested information is received quickly so that all references can be followed up.

If the requested information is not received it could affect your employment with this Company.
